The pastoral circle is a critical, systematic and systemic approach to the reflecting on our human predicament. The four moments or dimensions of the pastoral circle as: insertion, social analysis, theological reflection, and pastoral planning. All four of these circulate around experience and are concerned for justice.

Analysis Pastoral Circle

Join the Justice League! a dynamic group of social justice practitioners gathering to read and discuss excerpts from classic social justice texts, including author Q&A! Our next conversation will be on the book The Pastoral Circle Revisited featuring author Fr. Pete Henriot, S.J. We hope that the opportunity to study and discuss this text will be generative and allow us to practice the use of the pastoral circle to read the signs of the times, especially in light of the continued protests ...
